AMEND Senate Bill No. 1473*

House Bill No. 867

by deleting all of the language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 10-7-504, is hereby amended by adding the following new subdivisions to subsection (a):

(19) Records that would allow a person to obtain unauthorized access to confidential information or to government property shall be maintained as confidential. For the purpose of this section, "government property" includes electronic information processing systems, telecommunication systems, or other communications systems of a governmental entity subject to this chapter. Such records include:

(A) Information including and containing plans, security codes, passwords, combinations, or computer programs used to protect electronic information, government property, or officers and employees of a governmental agency;

(B) Information that would identify those areas of structural or operational vulnerability that would permit unlawful disruption to, or interference with the services provided by a governmental entity; and

(C) Information that could be used to disrupt, interfere with, or gain unauthorized access to electronic information or government property.

(20) Documents concerning the cost of protecting government property or electronic information, and the identity of vendors providing goods and services used to protect government property or electronic information shall not be confidential. However, any documents relating to these subjects shall not be made available to the public unless information that is confidential under this subsection or any other provision of this chapter has been redacted or deleted from the documents.

(21) Credit card numbers of persons doing business with the state, and any related personal identification numbers (PIN) or authorization codes, are confidential and shall not be open for inspection by members of the public, whether this information is received by the state through electronic means or paper transactions.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
